2nd October 2008, London: Premier Pension Services is delighted to announce that members and their advisers can now access Brooks Macdonald Asset Management Managed Portfolio Services using the Premier Self Invested Personal Pension (SIPP) - with the annual administration fee being waived.

Nigel Manley, Head of Self Invested Pensions, Premier Pension Services, says "This is an exciting addition to our product options, offering advisers the opportunity to use the discretionary fund management services of Brooks Macdonald with discounted SIPP administration costs.

"The SIPP annual administration fee is waived when funds under management by Brooks Macdonald exceed £150,000. With no establishment fee this means the member only has fees associated with any transfers into the plan as a cost to them."

The Brooks Macdonald Managed Portfolio Service offers a choice of 3 risk based funds, and gives the IFA online access to view client account values and content.

Nigel Manley continues, "With the Premier SIPP now able to accept the transfer of protected rights and these discounted administration costs, the product is brought within reach of potential SIPP investors that might previously not thought in terms of discretionary fund management."

The full terms and conditions can be accessed on the Premier Pension Services Website - <http://www.premierpensionservices.co.uk/>.

Chris Macdonald, CEO at Brooks Macdonald, says, "We are delighted to offer the Premier SIPP our Managed Portfolio Service. This will enable advisers utilising the Premier SIPP to provide their clients with managed exposure to the full range of asset classes and a composite range of leading investment funds, companies and structured products. We are excited about this new partnership."
